KERMIT HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS OF '72
PRESENTS

KERMITONIAN

FOREWORD

We, the Senior Class of 1972, have spent six exciting and amusing years at Kermit High School and shall have many memories of dances, car washes, romances, friendships, fun, hall times, marriages, and studies.

We have been an exceptionally good class as a whole although sometimes we just couldn't play up to our role as angels.

Now we leave this annual with you in hopes that you will turn back the pages and remember us and the great times we spent at K.H.S.

The Annual Staff

PATTY LINVILLE - EDITOR
JANET SMITH - CO-EDITOR

DEDICATION

RONALD GILMAN

We, the graduating class of '72, are dedicating our annual to Mr. Ronald Gilman. As our guidance counselor he has helped us solve many of our problems and has been patient with all. He is one of our senior sponsors and we owe a lot to him. He has also helped us with our annual for which we are very grateful.

FACULTY

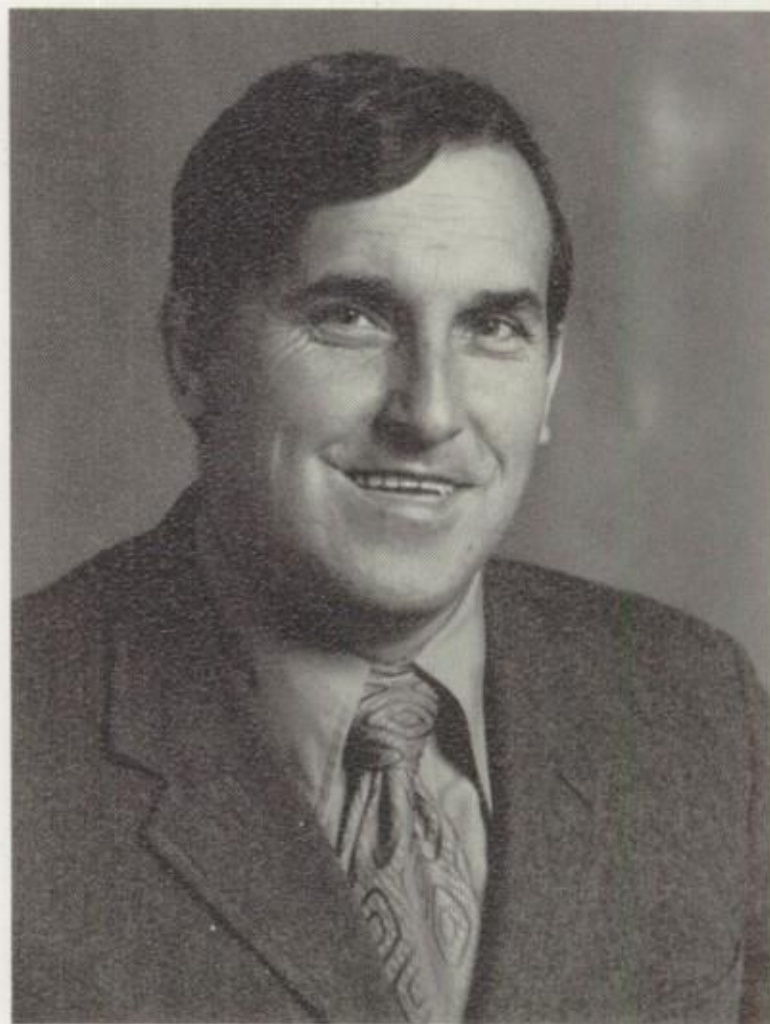

ADMINISTRATION

T. J. HARDIN, JR.
PRINCIPAL

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1972
We, the faculty at Kermit High School, wish to congratulate the class of 1972. You are to be commended for continuing in school until you have completed high school.

You have now reached a "mile stone" in your life. Up to this point you have had your parents and teachers to guide your life. Now you are venturing out on your own. We hope that you will continue your education by attending college or by studying, as you follow the occupation of your choice. Your experiences in school to this point should have prepared you to meet the problems that you will face in the future. If we can help you at anytime, please feel free to call upon us.

CLASS HISTORY

In August of 1966 we entered the halls of Kermit High School. When we first walked to class we thought the place was enormous and we would never learn to find our way around, but by noon we knew every door and window. Our sponsors were Mr. Kirk and Miss Towles. That year we began taking Physical Education and our teachers were sure glad we could run our energy off somewhere.

In the eighth grade we thought we were great and we could turn the tables by calling the new kids those "little seventh graders". Our sponsors were Mr. Tingler and Mrs. Marcum. We wish to thank Mr. Tingler for taking us on our class picnic on which he said he would never take another class.

As we entered the ninth grade the teacher said we HAD to settle down so we decided to give it a try. Our sponsors were Mrs. Mildred Osborne and Mr. Hoke. Some clubs we joined were: F.H.A., Glee Club, Science Club, Reporters Club, etc.

Next came our sophomore year and we sure were silly sophomores. That year several girls served at the banquet and went to the Prom. Mr. Greg Slater came on the scene as our typing teacher and although some had their doubts, we DID learn to type. Our sponsors were Mr. Hoke and Mr. Muncy.

Then we were Juniors and as we heard some had a very exciting summer. That year Clintwood, Va. became a very popular place for many of our students. Our banquet was given in May and the theme was "Age of Aquarius". Our sponsors were Mr. Parsley and Mr. Muncy.

And now our greatest year has arrived, Seniors at last! We now have 38 SENIORS from the 65 we started with. Our senior girls have won the Girls Basketball Intramural for four consecutive years. During the years we have had several girls on the cheerleading team, they have been Bobbie Smith, Debbie Conn, Rhonda Rose, Rita Sartin, and Eleanor Walker. We also had several basketball players they are Larry Brewer, Albert Horn, Wetzel Smith, Greg Raines, Terry Baisden, Lonnie Evans, and serving as manager Rodney Ruble.

Our class is very popular for having queens and princesses. We have had two princesses, Rita Sartin and Rhonda Rose; and three queens, Debbie Conn, Eleanor Walker, and Bobbie Smith. Now we will give the other classes a chance.

This year our class presented a three act comedy entitled "For Pop's Sake". We really enjoyed doing it, especially tearing the contact paper off the wall.

Our sponsors this year are: Mrs. Lacy, Mr. Maynard, Mr. Preece, Mrs. Maggard, and Mr. Gilman.

We will miss being in school and will have many memories of the past years. We ARE the Seniors and we certainly are mighty!

We, the Annual Staff, will our ability to make a great annual to next years annual staff!!

THE DEPRESSION OF 1992

Today is June 4, 1992 and I'm James Charlie York speaking from WSAZ TV studios in Huntington, W.Va. A great depression has hit the state of West Virginia; people are in a state of panic, not knowing what to do. But there is one little town just as prosperous as ever and that is Kermit. The people owe this to the fine management of the mayor, a 1972 graduate of Kermit High School. He is Walter Walker Jr. and of course he has got some of his old classmates on the town council. They are: Gregory Paul Raines, Janet Anne Smith, Terry Asa Baisden, and Glen Rodney Ruble.

Many people from Kermit, have donated their time and money to help their neighboring towns in this time of "need". They are:

Rita Sartin Gillman and her faithful husband, Stanley, donated their dilapidated 1970, once new, Cadillac to Pinson Motors in Williamson, W.Va. in hope that they will use it for good purposes only, since it was a wedding gift from Rita's parents.

Gracie Perry who now owns "Perry's Bologna Shop" on Main street Rt. 1, Jennigs Creek, has faithfully donated all her bologna and bread along with mustard and onions plus 200 cases of Listerine to the Crum High School faculty and student body.

Linda Kirk who owns "Frosty Wigs, Inc." at Buckbranch, Marrowbone, heartily gave up her most prized possession, a beautiful, original, new, doghair wig which just came on the scene this season. This beautiful wig is lined, believe it or not, with catskin!!

Rhonda Rose and her future husband (we hope!) Orville Messer, has donated 2 cows and 8 hogs that came from their Circle R Ranch they bought last summer out in Oklahoma to the Piggly Wiggly Supermarket in Williamson, W.Va.

Dora Chaffin who now owns the "Tweety Bird Shop" at East Kermit, W.Va. donated 50 of her best singing birds and 98 of her best dancing birds to the Top Hat Club in Williamson, W.Va.

Eleanor Walker Gillman who now manages the "Dirty Duds Laundramat" at the mouth of Marrowbone, unselfishly gave up 2 out of the 2,000 rusty washing machines that she had accumulated over the years.

Two fine outstanding squares of Kermit, Mary and Terry Webb, without any regrets, gave 50 dozen of their 18 children's dirty diapers to the "Dirty Duds Laundramat".

Miss Patricia Linville flew from Hollywood today to her hometown, Kermit. She made this special trip just to donate the grand total of $5.00 she has made from her last hit record.

Rosa and Marvin Block, the proud owners of Block's Restaurant in the heart of the city of Kermit, specialize in their famous foot long hotdogs; therefore, they would like to invite the needy to come in and eat a yard or two!

Martha Workman, the manager of the X rated "Boogaloo Bungalow Dance Club" in downtown Marrowbone, will now, after 15 years of business, finally admit people 30 and over to come in and swing a little bit!! I must remind you that these are special rates only because of the conditions that remain in this area; therefore the rates may go back up to 45 years and over any time now!!

Billy Bob Copley, who inherited Copley's Market at Warfield had now lowered his prices on his "soup beans and taters". So all you people who need 'em, come and get 'em whilst their hot!!!

Bobbie Smith, who now owns "Chickey Toes, Inc." has donated 100 pairs of "Ugly Chicken Panty Hose" to keep your chicken's toes warm on these cold and frosty mornings!

Debbie Conn and "hubby" Fred, the owners of Conn's Garbage Haul up in the Beverly Hills section of Kermit, would like for me to announce that she will keep her truck on the road day and night to haul off any garbage that is nasty.

Sharon Hager, who recently became the owner of the "Hags and Witches" store on Park Avenue, Kermit has announced that she is donating 5 brooms and 3 witches to Kermit High School and hopes that they will use these donations to the best of their ability.

Janie Maynard, the sole proprietor of "Maynard's Used Car Lots" donated 3 points and plugs and 1 battery to the Rootbeer Stand at Warfield, Ky.

David Akers who inherited "Akers Junk Shop" would like for me to announce that a sale lasting from 5 to 10 seconds is now going on, so don't miss this fabulous, once in a life time bargain!!!!

Larry Brewer who is now the owner of the Kermit Globe Trotters, just informed me that his famous "Kermit Trotters" will be providing free entertainment at "Akers Junk Shop" during the 5 to 10 seconds sale!

Richard May, the "Daniel Boone" of Marrowbone Creek, would like for all the hungry people to come to his house and have a piece of raw finger-lickin' chicken he killed with his own three hands last year.

Gracie Sturgill Newsome, the meanest mother who ever lived, would like to deposit all her "younguns" in the Inez Deposit Bank for safe keeping.

Golden Baisden, who now owns all the gold in Fort Knox, Ky., wishes to report that the little piece of gold that he was going to give to the little towns in W.Va. has now been stolen while he and his hag were tending the fort. So, if you little towns are wanting a piece of gold, you're going to have to look for it!!

Rev. Albert Horn, Pastor of the "Church of What's Happening Now" would like for me to announce that the members of his church are taking up donations to send to the needy. He said that the devil made him do it!!!

Rodney Ruble, who works part time as the "Fat Man" in the Barnum-Bailey Circus and the rest of his time selling, but mostly drinking Diet Rite Colas, has flown back to his hometown, Kermit today. There is fear of a depression in Kermit, now. Now is the time for the people of Kermit to hide THEIR food!!!!

Greg Raines who now owns the "Hide Away and Watch" tavern at the forks of Marrowbone Creek has donated 6 of his best watches and 8 gallons of his best homemade moonshine that he made with his own ten toes to the Lenore High School student body because they never have much of a good time up there.

Debbie Booth who now owns Booth's Mobile Homes will have one trailer on sell for half price in one hour. The first customer there before 12:00 noon will get a chance to win an antique outdoor toilet plus a free catalog of toilet paper.

Wetzel Smith and Ernest Williams managers of the "Lazy Dazy Hazy Crazy" gas station at Greyeagle are announcing the grand opening of their new "Lazy Dazy Hazy Crazy" gas station at Steeptown. The first 100 customers with $15.00 fill-up will recieve nothing.....yes, nothing!!!

Barbara James who just bought a new diet machine that's called "Eat Away and Be Gay" wants to donate this no good machine to the skinny people who don't need it, but could use it!!

Chuck Messer, the principal at Kermit High School, has announced that he is donating 2 lbs. of combination for sandwiches, 3 mop buckets, and 10 rolls of toilet paper to the "Lazy Dazy Hazy Crazy" gas station to give away at their grand opening.

Janet Smith who owns the "Rat Shop" at Kermit would like for everyone to know that all her rats have now got the lice and these lice are free to all the people with dirty heads and don't have any.

Walter Walker, the Mayor of Kermit, gladly gave up the old sewage tank and the pipes and waste they dug up last fall, to Warfield to help with their sewage problems that has accumulated.

Lonnie Evans and Terry Baisden who own the Logan Street Tavern are donating 7 cases of beer and 3 cases of pretzels to the "Hide Away and Watch" tavern at the forks of Marrowbone. If they need any more, they'll have to buy it.

Tony Evans who runs the "Honest Tony's Cab Stand" wants me to announce that his cabs are used for good purposes only such as going to Logan street for a beer or two.

Margaret Brunfield and Irene Newsome, two rich ladies who now run the "Shady Lane" oldfolk's home would like to donate five crazy people who are nothing but trouble because they don't have any "cents" back to Kermit High School where they spent many years before they went crazy. The five stooges are: Mr. John C. Preece (Ex-mayor of Kermit) Mr. Emmons B. Maynard (Ex-basketball coach) Mr. Ronald Gillman (Ex-Guidance Counselor) Mrs. Sue Lacy (Ex-Homemaker) Mrs. Maggard (Ex-Librarian).

I, James Charlie York, am willing to donate some sense to these crazy people to the town of Kermit.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS TO THE CLASS OF '72!!
